

Get Outside the BOX

Directions: Write as many things as you can fit on the "Things I Know About" box. Then, practice broadening your horizons by thinking about the possibilities that exist outside the box. Write three things you want to know about, as well as a plan for how to learn about them.

Something I want to know about:

How I can learn about it:

Something I want to know about:

How I can learn about it:

Something I want to know about:

How I can learn about it:

Things I Know About

